

Hazlitt's son joined a ----- school.

- A. Day
- B. Evening
- C. Boarding
- D. English

ANSWER: C

Ill names beget ----- blood.

- A. Ill
- B. Foul
- C. Cold blood
- D. Red blood

ANSWER: A

The author advises him not to become a bookworm lest he should develop a ----- in the shoulders.

- A. Pain
- B. Strain
- C. Stress
- D. Stoop

ANSWER: D

With respect to your -----, I wish you to choose them neither from caprice nor accident.

- A. Enemies
- B. Classmates
- C. Neighbours
- D. Friends

ANSWER: D

According to Ruskin with God's servants work is first and ----- is always second.

- A. Gold
- B. Money
- C. Fee
- D. Knowledge

ANSWER: C

With excellent and rightly trained people their ----- is first.

- A) work
- B) money
- C) fee
- D) faith

ANSWER: A

9. With Fiend's servants their ----- is first.

- A. Work
- B. Country
- C. Fee
- D. Wisdom

ANSWER: C

Ford's contemporary businessmen paid great attention to money instead of -----.

- A. Goods
- B. Business
- C. Job
- D. Service

ANSWER: D

If once a car was sold, its performance, after sale-service and repair were no concern of the -----.

- A. Manufacturer

- B. Seller
- C. Buyer
- D. Storekeeper

ANSWER: A

The automobile business was not on what I would call an ----- basis.

- A. Sound
- B. Weak
- C. Honest
- D. Storekeeper

ANSWER: C

Those men in business who call themselves ----- say that money is "worth" 6 per cent, or 5 per cent.

- A. Businessmen
- B. Financiers
- C. Lenders
- D. Borrowers

ANSWER: B

We are told by some ancient authors that ----- was instructed in eloquence by a woman.

- A. Plato
- B. Ruskin
- C. Aristotle
- D. Socrates

ANSWER: D

Mrs. Fiddle can entertain her guests the whole afternoon with the wit of her little ----- who is still unable to speak.

- A. Dog

B. Boy

C. Parrot

D. Girl

ANSWER: B

In ----- he wishes his son to become an honest man.

A. Religion

B. Trade

C. Politics

D. Sports

ANSWER: C

According to Hazlitt everything depends on first -----.

A. Appearance

B. Expressions

C. Impressions

D. Attempt

ANSWER: C

Do not begin to ----- with the world too soon.

A. Quarrel

B. Agree

C. Disagree

D. Live

ANSWER: A

You are, I think, too fond of ----- as it is.

A. Playing

B. Cooking

C. Sleeping

D. Reading

ANSWER: D

I would not, however, have you run away with a notion that the rich are -----.

A. Knave

B. Mean

C. Generous

D. Miser

ANSWER: A

Term----- is one great ingredient in the conduct of life.

A. Honesty

B. Wisdom

C. Gravity

D. Unity

ANSWER: C

Judas Iscariot was a ----- of Jesus Christ.

A. Enemy

B. Companion

C. Neighbour

D. Well-wisher

ANSWER B

Iscariot betrayed Christ for ----- pieces of silver.

A. Twenty

B. Thirty

C. Forty

D. Fifty

ANSWER: B

A manufacturer is not through with his customer when a sale is -----.

A. Pending

B. Postponed

C. Finished

D. Complete

ANSWER: D

There is also the great fear of being thought a -----.

A. Fool

B. Miser

C. Financier

D. Corrupt

ANSWER: A

A dissatisfied customer is the worst of all -----.

A. Accomplishments

B. Achievements

C. Advertisements

D. Realities

ANSWER: C

Henry Ford was the manufacturer of -----.

A. Cars

B. Planes

C. Motor bikes

D. Air-conditioners

ANSWER: A

He also rejects the idea of refinancing if first ----- does not succeed.

- A. Investment
- B. Attempt
- C. Financing
- D. Impression

ANSWER: C

The first kind of female orators are those who stir up the -----.

- A. Passions
- B. Thoughts
- C. Feelings
- D. Anger

ANSWER: A

The second kind of female orators may be called -----.

- A. Gossips
- B. Censorious
- C. Coquettes
- D. Greedy

ANSWER: B

The third kind of female orators may be called -----.

- A. Gossips
- B. Censorious
- C. Coquettes
- D. Talkative

ANSWER: A

The fourth kind of female orators may be called -----.

- A. Gossips
- B. Censorious
- C. Coquettes
- D. Eloquent

ANSWER: C