EXAMINATIONS DEPARTMENT

No. 14/ P&S/Exams

Dated: 21/06/2025

Subject: Responsibility for Student Eligibility and Dropout Cases

It is hereby informed that as per the university rules:

If a student secures SGPA of less than 1.7 in the first semester or a CGPA of less than 2.0 in any semester from the second semester onward, such students shall be considered dropouts and will not be eligible to promote in the next semester.

It is the responsibility of the Principals of Affiliated Colleges to carefully check and verify the eligibility status of their students. If any ineligible (dropout) student is included in the examination data or is allowed to appear in the exams, the entire responsibility shall rest with the concerned college. Examinations Department of The Islamia University of Bahawalpur will not be responsible for it

You are therefore once again requested to ensure that only eligible students, as per the criteria above, are submitted to the University Examination and related matters.
